

Ueshiro Okinawan Karate Family Club

State College, PA

Welcome to the Ueshiro Okinawan Karate Family Club.

We train in Shorin Ryu karate, an authentic Okinawan style, just as it has been practiced and perfected over the centuries. The Ueshiro Okinawan Karate Family Club is part of Shorin-Ryu Karate U.S.A., (www.shorinryu.com) an organization founded by Grand Master Ansei Ueshiro and directed by Hanshi Robert Scaglione, with many affiliated clubs and dojo around the world.

A Co-operative Spirit

The Ueshiro Okinawan Family Karate Club is designed to bring families together in a fun, rewarding physical activity fostering both individual skills and community spirit.

Schedule of Classes

Sundays* 5:30—7:00 p.m.

Windmere Hall (Independent Order of Odd Fellows Bldg.)
454 Rolling Ridge Drive
State College, PA 16801

*On the FIRST Sunday of the every month the workout is followed by a pot luck dinner.

Thursdays 6:00—7:15 p.m.

Dragonfly Therapeutic Massage and Day Spa (above Plato's Closet)
1526 North Atherton, Suite 200 (please use rear entrance)
State College, PA 16803

Additional workouts (and trips to other dojo) — Planned on a regular basis.

Instructor

Matt Kaplan: Kyoshi Kaplan holds a Black Belt in Shorin-Ryu Karate. He began his karate training in 1981. His Sensei is Hanshi (Master) Robert Scaglione.

Registration Fees

Tuition:

$20.00/month for adults
$15.00/month for children (16 and under)
$15.00/month for grandparents

Registration is for a 6-month period. Sign-ups are by family (could be "good friends", neighbors, etc.).

Uniforms:

Traditional uniforms are available.
For children: $25. For adults: $30.

For more information contact Matt at 814-441-9188 (msk15@psu.edu)